William J. Casey, Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I wanted you to know how much my wife and I appreciated the opportunity to attend the excellent "Donovan and the Fighting Sixty-Ninth" ceremony on June 2, 1986. I was particularly proud that my good friend, [redacted] did such a marvelous job putting together the tasteful exhibit. Since my father had served with the Pennsylvania Division in many of the same battles as the Fighting Sixty-Ninth, it was a particularly memorable evening for me.

I saw Jack Wydler at the House Armed Services Committee markup on the DOD bill, and told him I had had an opportunity to say hello to you at the Fighting Sixty-Ninth reception. I believe that the last time I had met you we had discussed the government's role in synthetic fuels at Jack's congressional farewell party.

Our best wishes for continued success in your critical stewardship; if Bill [redacted] is in any way representative, you certainly have excellent people.

God bless the work!
